Important Information about this Venue

The Custom House is situated in the centre of Belfast City, on the Laganside water front. The building is distinctive due to its Victorian architecture of sand stone and granite construction.

It is located directly behind the famous Belfast landmark the 'The Albert Clock'.

A one-way system operates around Custom House Square. There are no parking facilities directly connected to the Custom House.

Car parking is available in various locations around the 'The Custom House', with high rise car parking facilities in both High street and also on Donegall Quay, (beside the Ulster Bus depot).

There is also street parking situated in High Street, Waring Street, and Tomb Street on a pay and display basis.
