Directions

By Train

From Glasgow:

This is the quickest and normally the most economic way to travel. There is an excellent ½ hourly service both ways on the Glasgow Central to Ayr line. Journey time is approximately 35 minutes. Irvine is the stop after Kilwinning. As the train approaches Irvine station the office is visible on the left hand side. On exiting station turn left and the office is but two/three minutes walk away.

By Car

From Glasgow:

Take M77 southbound & continue on A77. Leave A77 at Bellfield Interchange, taking A71. Continue along A71 through Corsehill Mount Roundabout to Warrix Interchange, then straight on to Milgarholm Roundabout. Take Southern Approach Road to Merryvale Roundabout; turn right into Fullarton Street (then past the high flats and row of shops on your left) on to Fullarton Roundabout. Go straight on under the bridge to Marress Roundabout. Office is now visible on left hand side in front of Cunninghame House (North Ayrshire Council building). Bear left all the way round and take a left turn into the front of Marress House.
