Directions

From the North (Birmingham City Centre), follow the A435 (Hollywood Bypass) to Wythall, when you get to large roundabout go straight on and the Becketts Farm is on your right.

From the West, East and South, make your way to the M42 and leave at junction 3 and follow sign for Birmingham City Centre. You will now be on the A435 Alcester Road, follow this for about 1.5 miles and the Becketts Farm is on your left before the big roundabout.

By Rail,

The nearest rail station is at Wythall Station which is situated just along Station Road, turn left at end onto Lea Green Lane and the Station is on your right. It is about a 10-15 minute walk from the venue. There are two more stations near and they are Shirley Rail Station and Whitlocks End Rail Station but these are a good half hour to 45 minute walk away so a taxi would be recommended.

Conference Centre

On arriving at Becketts, make your way to the coffee shop where there are some stairs which take you up to the conference rooms.

Important Information about this Venue

Becketts Farm does have a disabled toilet (ground floor near café) and disabled parking; however the conference room is on the first floor with no lift, only stairs, so this venue is unsuitable for wheelchair users.

This venue is NOT fully compliant with the access requirements of the Equality Act 2010.
