

Lifetime of UK Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) taxonomy versions accepted by HM Revenue & Customs

The list below shows which version of the UK GAAP taxonomy you should use.

The version of the taxonomy to use is determined by reference to the date to which the accounts are prepared which should fall between the 'valid from' and 'valid to' dates shown for the version. There will be instances where more than one version of the taxonomy can be used legitimately to tag a particular set of accounts.

Taxonomy version	Valid from	Valid to	Additional Information
UK GAAP 2009	April 2009	to be advised	Recommended for use for all periods of account ending after April 2009 No end date for support currently.
