

What to do if your employee is sick

An employer guide to

- Statutory Sick Pay
- Statutory Sick Pay Rates
- Statutory Sick Pay Tables

Use from 6 April 2008 to 5 April 2009

Contents

	page		page
Information	3	Are you liable to pay employer's Class 1 NICs on your employee's earnings?	11
Further Help	3	Employee working outside UK on first day of PIW	11
Statutory Sick Pay calculator	3	Change of employer	11
Employees and employers in Northern Ireland	3	Does your employee earn enough?	12
Visits to employers from HM Revenue & Customs	3	What counts as earnings?	12
Penalties	3	When to include earnings from PAYE Settlement Agreements and subject to Class 1B NICs	12
Terms and Conditions used in this Helpbook	4	Over/underpaid earnings during the set period	12
Statutory Sick Pay (SPP)	4	Mistimed payments	12
Incapacity Benefit (IB)	4	Multiple or changed pay frequency in the set period	12
Employment and Support Allowance (ESA)	4	Employees with more than one job	13
Employee	4	New employees who have not had eight weeks earnings yet	13
Employer	4	Rounding to the nearest whole month when there isn't a whole number of months in the set period	13
Period of Incapacity for Work (PIW)	4	How to work out the set period	14
Lower Earnings Limit (LEL)	4	Weekly or multiple weekly paid employees - how to work out Average Weekly Earnings (AWE)	15
Linking	4	Calendar monthly paid employees - how to work out Average Weekly Earnings (AWE)	15
Linking letters	4	Weekly paid employee gets regular payment earlier or later than normal with more or less than eight weeks pay in the set period	16
Qualifying Days (QDs)	4	Weekly paid employee without a whole number of weeks in the set period	16
Waiting Days (WDs)	4	Agency and short contract workers - weekly paid	16
Week	4	Employee paid at irregular intervals	16
Percentage Threshold Scheme (PTS)	4	Check sheet for employees paid at irregular intervals	16
What is New from 6 April 2008	5	Directors	17
Statutory Sick Pay weekly rate from 6 April 2008	5	Check sheet for directors paid by formal vote	17
Statutory Sick Pay daily rate table	5	Medical evidence your employee should give you	18
How to use this table to work out how much to pay	5	Evidence of incapacity for work	18
Daily rates table for days of sickness from 6 April 2008 to 5 April 2009	5	Managing sick absence	18
The Welfare Reform Act 2007	5	Seeking medical advice about lengthy absences	19
Merger of Employer Helpbooks	5	Seeking medical advice about frequent absences for short periods	20
Forms you may need to use	6	Action when you get the medical advice	20
SSP2 (SSP record sheet)	6	Employee refuses to give consent	20
SC2 (Employee self-certification form)	6	An example of written consent	20
SSP1 (Why I cannot pay SSP)	6	Control periods, common illnesses and abbreviations	21
SSP1(L) (Leaver's statement)	6	Incapacity and Deemed Incapacity	22
Using your own versions of the sickness forms	6	General	22
Specific employments	6	Part of a day's sickness	22
Casual employees	6	Shift workers	22
Linking short contracts of employment	6	Precautionary or convalescent reasons	22
Agency workers	6	Infectious or contagious diseases	22
Mariners	7	Bereavement	22
Foreign - going mariners	7	Supported or permitted work for occupational or medical reasons	22
Your employee has two contracts	7	Welfare to work beneficiaries	22
NHS employees	7
Operating the Statutory Sick Pay scheme - flowchart	8
General	9
What do I have to do?	9
What does my employee have to do?	9
How your employee must tell you	9
Employee doesn't tell you	9
Withholding payment for late notification	9
How long has your employee been sick?	9
Linking Periods of Incapacity for Work	9
Employees who can't get SSP from you	10
SSP1 issued by mistake	10
Employee already had 28 weeks' SSP from a previous employer	10

