ERIC Response Messages

1. Introduction

1.1 Overview

Whenever an attempt is made to electronically file a tax form, a message should be returned to confirm the result of that attempt. This may take the form of either a success message, which confirms successful filing of that form, or a number of error messages. Error messages have two functions: to identify errors within the form itself and establish corrective action to be taken, and secondly to recognise errors within the connection, system or elsewhere which have prevented the form from reaching the validation stage.

1.2 Purpose and Scope

The response message proposed in this document is intended to allow messages to be easily processed by Third Party software, while maintaining a degree of flexibility for changes to message handling in the future.

This document references each Business Validation Rule (BVR) from the 'Quality Standard and Business Validation Specification From April 2010'. The response messages produced may be due to schema validation. In these cases, this is indicated in the Rule No. column.

This document is applicable to both the test and the live service.

There are examples of the response messages in the Appendix at the back of this document.
