Final update June 05

Footnotes

- (1) The shift in the balance from building societies to banks during 1997 and 2000 reflects the demutualisation of several building societies.
- (2) Follow-up TESSAs are accounts opened under the special rules following the maturity of a TESSA.
- (3) TESSAs could still be opened until 5 April 1999, giving rise to the increase in numbers of accounts observed in the quarter ending June 1999.
